- • Be sure to respond to Larry with your thoughts on ways to handle the word of the day and the vote counter
  - TM Dues: To have your TM dues paid by CED, between 10/1/2004 and 3/31/2005 you must have attended half of the meetings and given two speeches. Be sure your requirements are met! Joint meetings are a good place to make up both speeches and attendance requirements. New members will be automatically renewed.
  - March has quite a few four-speaker meetings. Hopefully this will allow everyone to get their required speeches in. An alternative is to ask the TNT club if they have openings for speakers. Attending a TNT meeting will qualify for attendance requirements.
  - Upcoming Events:
    - o Spring Conference individual registration due to Larry (as treasurer) by March 15. Club registration is handled separately.
    - o Spring Conference, May 13 – 14, Volunteers needed. See Paul for details.
    - o Club newsletter lists several other upcoming events.

- • Ten people responded to Larry regarding the idea to (1) add the Word of the Day (WOTD) to the agenda, and (2) send feedback slips to the GE:
    - o WOTD on the Agenda -- 9 of 10 were for it. The one Nay said it is okay to put WOTD on the agenda brought to the meeting but not the one emailed a day or more before the meeting -- reasoning: WOTD is like table topics. However, the Naysayer thinks the WOTD should be taped up before the meeting starts.
    - o Feedback slips to GE: 7 of 10 were for it. The three Nays believe the GE should be free to concentrate on the meeting.
  - To have your TM dues paid by CED on March 31, you must have attended half of the meetings between 10/01/2004 and 03/31/2005, and given 2 prepared speeches. Be sure your requirements are met! Joint meetings are a good place to make up both speeches and attendance requirements. New members will be automatically renewed.
  - A quick peek at the schedule for March indicates quite a few four-speaker meetings. Hopefully this will allow everyone to get their required speeches in. An alternative is to ask the TNT club if they have openings for requirements.

    - o Spring Conference individual registration due to Larry (as treasurer) by M:
    - o Spring Conference, May 13 – 14, Volunteers needed. See Paul for details

  - Our Area Governor will be making his official visit tomorrow. I wonder if that means Larry will be wearing his Toastmaster's badge.

- • TM Dues: With tomorrow being the last day of March, it brings to a close CED's 10/1/2004 - 3/31/2005 reporting period. Thursday is the last day to fulfill your requirements to have CED renew dues of veteran members. You do have the option of paying your own way. People on the bubble have been notified.
  - Spring Conference: Tomorrow also marks the very last day dues for the Spring Conference can be submitted and be counted in the $30.00 per club cost. I did find out that if you want to bring your own food, you will not be allowed to participate in events that happen during the meals..
  - Officer Nominations: Kim as immediate past president will be organizing a nominating committee for officer elections. These elections will be held in May for July - December 2005. Consider helping your club by serving as an officer. See any current officer for details about their duties.

- • Club Emails: To alleviate the number of Toastmaster related emails, it isn't necessary to email the entire group when you're scheduled for a role that doesn't require pre-meeting preparation. If you are Vote Counter, Ah/Grammarians, Quiz Master, Timer, Speech Evaluator, or General Evaluator and won't be able to attend, simply email the Toastmaster of the meeting. Certainly email the entire group if you are Toastmaster, TM Minute, Speaker, Word Master, Joke Master, or Table Topics and can't attend, although, the last three roles could be filled at the meeting.
  - Club officer elections: will be held in May, for the July - December term. We may want to consider having officers serve a full year at a time to coincide with Toastmaster's fiscal, which is July - June. Consider helping your club by serving as an officer. Contact any current officer for details about their duties.
  - Guests: Continue bringing guests. Of the 13 meetings we've had so far in 2005, we've had guests at 11!! Of those guests, 6 have become members.
  - Upcoming Events:
    - o Spring Conference May 13 – 14. Volunteers are needed. See Paul for det

- Paul Brown: Mucho Kudos to Paul Brown - and an apology. Although Paul has been attending toastmasters for several weeks, due to contests and 4-speaker meetings, last week was the first time he'd experienced Table Topics. And, you guessed it, he was the first one called! He spoke for over 2 minutes without ever seeing a Table Topics speech. Good job on carrying through, Paul!

- • Larry, our resident statistician, has been compiling data on the clubs of District 22. Guess which club is #1???? OURS!!! This is based on data as of 4/30/05. Final numbers for the toastmaster year ending 6/30/05 should be available around the first of August. We edged out Avionics for the top spot. Lets keep up the good work!
  - Its great to see the newer members of the club stepping up into meeting leadership roles. That's what keeps our club vibrant.

- • Table Topic Masters should have a different subject for each speaker. If everyone has the same subject, the last speaker has an advantage of hearing earlier speakers and preparing their speech.
  - Being near the end of June, it might be time to check our speaking schedules and our attendance requirements. All of us need to give 2 prepared speeches and attend 1/2 of the meeting between 4/1 and 9/30 for DST to pay our individual dues. Be proactive about this and make sure you meet the requirements. Take action now, rather than having to scramble in September.
